2025 ROYAL QUEENSLAND CHEESE & DAIRY PRODUCE AWARDS PRESENTED BY KING STREET

The Royal Queensland Cheese & Dairy Produce Awards stems back to the first-ever Royal Queensland Show (Ekka) in 1876, making it one of the RNA's oldest competitions.

The awards are built on longstanding traditions celebrating excellence in Australian dairy produce and are also reflective of current industry trends and in particular, changing consumer interest.

Positively received in previous years, exhibitors will once again receive an in-depth peer-to-peer report for their exhibits to provide them with direct comparisons to other products within the industry.

Renowned international food judge and cheesemaker Russell Smith is once again Chief Judge of the Royal Queensland Cheese & Dairy Produce Awards.

Mr Smith, who has more than 25 years of experience in the industry, will oversee an expert judging panel made up of some of Australia's most respected and experienced food industry professionals.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF JUDGE

CHIEF JUDGE

RUSSELL SMITH

With so many changes in the manufacturing side of the dairy industry in the last couple of years it's more important than ever for competitions like the RQA to keep up to date with the changing landscape of dairy manufacturing.

There are now just three large companies involved at the bigger end of the industry. Two of them huge international producers having Australia only a very small part of their business. We need to engage them in our competitions and the wider industry to promote a positive outlook for dairy in Australia.

The RQA Cheese and Dairy Competition and the Ice Cream, Gelato and Sorbet Competition continue to attract the best judges in Australia. This is due to the very high professional standard of the event organisers at the RNA as well as enthusiastic support from the CEO, Brendan Christou, through all levels of competition organisers.

Their support is crucial in maintaining the highest possible standard and integrity of the judging process.

I am always pleased to be invited to oversee the judging of these two great competitions.
