Australia's best cheese and ice-cream set to be crowned

Tomorrow Australia's king of dairy will be crowned at the prestigious Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show's (RQFWS) Cheese, Dairy, Ice-Cream, Gelato and Sorbet Awards, at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

Will parmesan reign supreme or will it be a creamy brie or sharp blue that takes out the top gong in cheese?

What mouth-watering ice-cream, gelato and sorbet will take top honours to be named the nation's best of the best?

RQFWS judges have had the enviable task of tasting their way through 447 of Australia's best cheese and dairy products, as well as 160 ice-creams, gelatos and sorbets – including some interesting flavours like watermelon and mint, toasted marshmallow and apple pie.

Entries have come in from across the country, with a 20 per cent increase across both competitions - confirming the ongoing growth and success of the RQFWS.

The Dairy Produce Show stems back to the first ever Royal Queensland Show (Ekka) in 1876, making it one of the RNA's oldest competitions.
