Exclusive tasting of Australia's finest wines

Wine lovers will soon be raising their glasses to the newest and best drops in the nation, with tickets to the Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show's (RQFWS) Grape Grazing by Night - Celebrating Australian Wine event on sale from today.

The exclusive event in July gives the general public the rare chance to sample more than 1,800 fine wines, including the Royal Queensland Wine Show (RQWS) medal-winners and new vintage of season.

While browsing through one of Australia's finest wine libraries, event attendees can indulge in Australia's best cheese, lamb and beef, as awarded by the Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show next month.

Grape Grazing by Night is now in its fourth year and is continuing to grow in popularity. Last year's event was a sell-out, with around 900 people sipping their way through Australia's best reds, whites and sparkling.

This ultimate cellar-bration of wine will take place at the Brisbane Showgrounds on Friday 13 July from 5.30pm. Tickets are now on sale at www.grapegrazingbynight.com.au for $95 each. A special group discount rate is also available.

The RQWS is the first capital city wine show of the season and the first to judge the 2018 vintage in Australia. It aims to give wineries exposure by helping to promote the nation's diverse growing regions, the winemakers and their exceptional drops.

WHEN: Friday 13 July 2018, 5.30pm – 8.30pm
