2023 ROYAL QUEENSLAND WINE AWARDS

For 146 years, thousands of Australian winemakers have entered the nationally esteemed Royal Queensland Wine Awards (RQWA) — the first Australian capital city wine show of the season and the first to judge the new vintages. Built upon longstanding traditions championing excellence in wine, this prestigious show continues to garner success by aligning with consumer interest and current industry trends.

In 2023, Chief Judge Tom Carson led a team of expert wine judges from across the nation to benchmark exhibits against their peers in Australian wine.

The RQWA continues to be an exciting opportunity for proven and emerging winemakers.

The recipient of the 2023 Angelo Puglisi Grand Champion Wine of Show Trophy receives a $12,000 fellowship to further their knowledge of the national and international wine industry, with fellowship funds to be used for travel, training, and education.

Also, for the first time in 2023 the recipient of the Dr Bill Ryan Best Pinot Noir of Show Trophy receives a $5,000 prize.

The RQWA continues to embrace its role in assisting exhibitors to realise the commercial potential of their achievements. Post-judging, exhibits will be showcased to consumers at 'Grape Grazing by Night' on Friday 14 July 2023. Opportunities have been offered to exhibitors to showcase their own wines on the night and to engage directly with 1000+ consumers.

2023 HIGHLIGHTS

Chief Judge Tom Carson said wines from the 2022 vintage really stood out to the panel of 26 judges.

"The red wines in particular from the 2022 vintage were of an extremely high quality and the white wines were of a very high standard as well," he said.

"The wines entered in the White Varietals 2022 class were outstanding, with five gold medals awarded.

"This class featured new emerging varieties such as albarino, chenin blanc, pinot blanc and fiano, and the judges were really impressed by what's happening in that space."
