

2015 Royal Queensland Food & Wine show

Media Release

10 June 2015

Be the first to taste Australia's new wine vintage

You too can join the inner sanctum and be the first in Australia to taste the newest wines from the nation's best winemakers thanks to the RNA's Royal Queensland Wine Show (RQWS).

Tasting a winemaker's new vintage of season - an honour mainly reserved for the wine industry at the season's first wine show – can now be experienced by the general public at the exclusive RQWS Grape Grazing by Night event next month.

The event celebrates the conclusion of the 2015 RQWS and provides Queenslanders with the only opportunity of its kind to taste more than 2,000 wines, including the award-winning wines from the new vintage of season.

The RQWS is the first wine show to be held for the season and the first to judge the 2015 vintage in Australia.

Complementing the exceptional wine selection will be grazing stations showcasing the 2015 Royal Queensland Food and Wine Show winning cheese; branded lamb and branded beef.

Mixing with Brisbane's foodies, media and international wine judges, Grape Grazing by Night guests will have the rare opportunity to meet winemakers responsible for producing some of Australia's finest drops.

The event will be held on Friday July 3 at the Brisbane Showgrounds starting at 5.30pm, don't miss out, tickets on sale now from <http://www.rqfws.com.au/>

Ticket start at just $80 per person, special group discount rates are also available.
